

The Hohenfels High School
Wrestling Team

A photograph of a youth wrestling match. A young boy in a black and white singlet is performing a takedown on his opponent. The boy in black is leaning forward, pushing off the mat with his right foot while holding his opponent's left arm. His opponent, wearing a yellow singlet, is on the mat, having been taken down. The background shows a blue padded wall and some spectators.

He's winning!

The spectator's look on as our team member beats
the other team's member.
